REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art when taken separately or combined fails to teach and/or show a flashlight apparatus as set forth in Claim 2 having a body member and a head member, the head member including light emitting means, and a connecting member for connecting the head member to the body member. The flashlight apparatus also includes an attaching means for connecting and integrating an attachable and movable object to the body member.

2. The prior art when taken separately or combined fails to teach and/or show a flashlight apparatus as set forth in Claim 14 having a body member and a head member, the head member including light emitting means, and a connecting member for connecting the head member to the body member. The flashlight apparatus also includes co-operating means for connecting and integrating a moveable object to the body member or the head member. The co-operating means consist of irregular surfaces on the movable object and either the body member or the head member.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
